Together, WE ARE ONE

Juntos, SOMOS UNO

October 10, 2026

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

This year's Catholic Services Appeal theme, Together, we are one, is rooted in the witness of the early Church: "The community of believers was of one heart and mind…" (Acts 4:32). United in Christ, we share responsibility for the mission entrusted to us across the Diocese of Austin.

I am profoundly grateful for the extraordinary generosity of the faithful. Last year, more than $9 million was received through the CSA. Your sacrifices strengthened the Church, cared for our neighbors in need, and made the love of Christ visible throughout Central Texas. Building on that faithful response, our goal for the 2026-2027 Catholic Services Appeal is $7.4 million.

Your gift supports the full breadth of our diocesan mission: clergy formation, including the education of seminarians and care for senior and retired priests; ministries that assist families and individuals in need; Catholic education and faith formation; pastoral ministries for youth, young adults, families, and multicultural communities; and opportunities for spiritual renewal and worship.

The CSA makes possible ministries and services that no single parish could sustain alone. Each contribution, large or small, becomes part of a shared mission of evangelization, formation, charity and hope. In the coming weeks, you will receive information about the CSA. I ask you to review these materials and prayerfully consider how God may be calling you to participate. As St. Paul reminds us, "God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Cor 9:7). May our gratitude for God's abundant blessings inspire us to give with joyful and generous hearts.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel E. Garcia
Bishop of Austin

10 de octubre de 2026

Mis Estimados Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo:

El tema del Llamado Para Los Servicios Católicos de este año (CSA por sus siglas en inglés), Juntos, somos uno, está enraizado en el testimonio de la iglesia temprana: "La multitud de los que habían creído tenía un solo corazón y una sola alma…" (Hechos 4:32). Unidos en Cristo, compartimos la responsabilidad de la misión confiada a nosotros a lo largo de la Diócesis de Austin.

Estoy profundamente agradecido por la extraordinaria generosidad de los fieles. El año pasado, más de $9 millones fueron recibidos a través del CSA. Sus sacrificios fortalecieron a la Iglesia, cuidaron de nuestro prójimo necesitado, e hicieron que el amor de Cristo fuera visible a lo largo del Centro de Texas. Construyendo sobre esa fiel respuesta, nuestra meta para el Llamado Para Los Servicios Católicos de 2026-2027 es de $7.4 millones.

Su donativo apoya toda la amplitud de nuestra misión diocesana: la formación del clero, incluyendo la educación de seminaristas y el cuidado de sacerdotes mayores y retirados; ministerios que asisten a familias y a individuos necesitados; educación Católica y formación en la fe; ministerios pastorales para jóvenes, jóvenes adultos, familias, y comunidades multiculturales; y oportunidades para la renovación espiritual y el culto divino.

El CSA hace posible ministerios y servicios que ninguna parroquia podría sustentar por sí sola. Cada contribución, grande o pequeña, se convierte en parte de una misión compartida de evangelización, formación, caridad y esperanza. Durante las próximas semanas, recibirá información sobre el CSA. Le pido que revise estos materiales y en oración considere cómo es que Dios puede que lo esté llamando a participar. Como nos recuerda San Pablo, "Dios ama al quien da con alegría" (2 Cor 9:7). Que nuestra gratitud por las abundantes bendiciones de Dios nos inspire a dar con corazones alegres y generosos.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Monseñor Daniel E. Garcia
Obispo de Austin

DEACON'S CORNER

Bury the dead, part 2

There was a little girl who on a regular basis was taken to visit her great-grandmother. When she arrived, she got a slice of American cheese and when she left she would be given a piece of Almond-Rocca candy. When her Great-grandmother passed the girl was still quite young and it was decided to spare her the unpleasantness of attending the funeral. Funerals are not much fun, and she wouldn't be missed. A few years later, the girl, now a teenager, goes into a Baskin-Robbins ice cream parlor, sees Almond-Rocca flavored ice cream and bursts into tears. She is sobbing so hard she can't speak and finally, after being taken back to the car manages to get out "I (sob) miss (sob) Grammy". What wasn't recognized was that she had a relationship with her Great-grandmother and she had suffered a loss. Keeping her from the funeral didn't spare her anything, it just delayed the grieving process.

Many people today try to short-cut or even skip the funeral services because they think by skipping the funeral, they can skip the pain and unhappiness of grief. But you can no more escape the pain of grief by skipping the funeral than you can skip the pain of a broken arm by avoiding doctors and hospitals. It's not the funeral that causes the pain; it's the funeral that aids in the healing.

Once I was asked to do a funeral for a family member whose wife had passed and he said "Don't make it too long." I smiled and said that in my experience, Catholic funerals never seemed too long, or too short. They always seem to be about the right length of time. So even if you don't find funerals to be enjoyable, when you are able attend a funeral, please do so. Just your presence will mean a lot to those suffering a loss and will help them in their healing. As we have been told, it's one of the works of mercy.

Blessings and peace, Deacon Steve

RINCON DEL DIACONO

Enterrar a los muertos, parte 2

Había una niña a la que llevaban regularmente a visitar a su bisabuela. Al llegar, recibía una rebanada de queso tipo americano y, al marcharse, le daban un dulce Almond-Rocca. Cuando su bisabuela falleció, la niña aún era muy pequeña y se decidió evitarle el mal trago de asistir al funeral. Los funerales no son precisamente divertidos y su ausencia no se notaría. Unos años más tarde, la niña —ya adolescente— entró en una heladería Baskin-Robbins, vio un helado con sabor a Almond -Rocca y rompió a llorar. Sollozaba con tanta fuerza que no podía hablar; finalmente, tras ser llevada de vuelta al coche, logró articular: «Extraño (sollozo) a mi bisabuela». No se comprendió entonces que ella tenía un vínculo con su bisabuela y que había sufrido una pérdida. Impedirle asistir al funeral no le ahorró nada; simplemente retrasó el proceso de duelo.

Hoy en día, muchas personas intentan abreviar o incluso evitar los servicios funerarios porque creen que, al no asistir, pueden eludir el dolor y la tristeza del duelo. Sin embargo, no es posible escapar del dolor del duelo por no ir al funeral, del mismo modo que no se puede evitar el dolor de un brazo roto evitando a médicos y hospitales. No es el funeral lo que causa el dolor, sino que el funeral ayuda a sanarlo.

Una vez me pidieron que oficiara el funeral de un hombre cuya esposa había fallecido; él me dijo: «Que no sea demasiado largo». Sonreí y le comenté que, según mi experiencia, los funerales católicos nunca parecen demasiado largos ni demasiado cortos; siempre parecen tener la duración justa. Así pues, aunque los funerales no le resulten agradables, si tiene la oportunidad de asistir a uno, por favor hágalo. Su sola presencia significará mucho para quienes sufren una pérdida y les ayudará en su sanación. Como se nos ha enseñado, es una de las obras de misericordia.

Bendiciones y paz, Diácono Steve

The Parish Council of Catholic Women (PCCW)

St. Mary's PCCW, the local affiliation of the National Council of Catholic Women and the Austin Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, invites you to join us in our mission to support, empower, and educate all Catholic women in spirituality, leadership, and service. As we grow both individually and collectively in our spiritual lives, our goal is to enrich and evangelize the lives of our parish and our community through Christian works.

On the parish level we:

- Purchase and care for all things needed to celebrate the liturgy, e.g., the bread and wine consecrated at each Mass, the altar linens and vestments, the sacred vessels, altar server vestments
- Sponsor the annual Lenten Women's Retreat
- Conduct Clerical Endowment Fund drives to support the seminarians of the diocese
- Host a reception for anniversary couples and recognize them with certificates
- Support our youth with gifts for First Communicants And Confirmation Class enrollments in CEF
- Send get well, thinking of you and sympathy cards
- Distribute holiday cards and gifts to shut-in parish members

In the wider community we:

- Host birthday parties for nursing home residents
- Distribute Christmas cards and cookies to the nursing home residents
- Offer other types of support to places such as nursing homes, pregnancy centers, etc.

To support these various activities we have fund-raisers such as cake sales, and our annual
