National Vocation Awareness Week starts November 2nd

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:3)

The saints show us that true joy and freedom come from placing God above all else. Their lives remind us that holiness often begins in simplicity and humility, responding generously to God's call. During National Vocations Awareness Week, let us pray for more men and women to courageously follow Him, discerning a life as a priest, religious brother or sister, or through holy matrimony. Could God be inviting you to join in this holy witness? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (512) 949-2430 or via email: vocations@austindiocese.org.

La Semana Nacional de Concientización sobre las Vocaciones comienza el 2 de noviembre

"Bienaventurados los pobres de espíritu, porque de ellos es el reino de los cielos." (Mateo 5:3)

Los santos nos muestran que la verdadera alegría y libertad provienen de poner a Dios por encima de todo. Sus vidas nos recuerdan que la santidad a menudo comienza en la sencillez y la humildad, respondiendo generosamente al llamado de Dios. Durante la Semana Nacional de Concientización sobre las Vocaciones, oremos para que más hombres y mujeres lo sigan con valentía, discerniendo una vida como sacerdotes, religiosos o religiosas, o a través del santo matrimonio. ¿Podría Dios invitarte a unirte a este santo testimonio? Habla con tu sacerdote o comunícate con la Oficina de Vocaciones al (512) 949-2430 o por correo electrónico: vocations@austindiocese.org.

DEACON'S CORNER

This weekendThis weekend we celebrate All Saints Day. Next week we will reflect on All Souls Day. In the Gospel we hear Jesus describe those who are blessed by God. During the liturgical year of the Church we celebrate many of these blessed ones; saints such as St. Joseph, the Virgin Mary, the apostles and martyrs and many other saints canonized by the church. Saints with their own feast days. But this weekend, on All Saints' Day, we honor and celebrate all the known and unknown saints who now share God's glory forever in heaven. These unknown saints do not have an official feast day of their own. This is their feast day. St. John in the first reading describes the saints as a crowd so great that no one could count it. They were individuals of all nations and races, of all peoples and languages.. . standing before the throne of the Lamb of God praising and worshipping God along with the angels. Imagine enjoying the beautiful singing of those choirs of angels. It must be a wonderful thing to hear! Saints are not just popes, bishops, priests, deacons, and religious, but lay people from all walks of life. Some of them are members of our families who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith and who hope and pray that we will join them. Those who, like us, await their resurrection on the last day.. when they will shine like the stars in the sky for all eternity. We honor, admire, and thank them for their faithfulness to God. As partners in the mystical body of Christ, they are our spiritual brothers and sisters in Christ. Today we ask for their intercession as we continue our journey of faith. To close there is a prayer that we use in church. The prayer is called the Litany of the Saints. It would be a good prayer to pray at some point today. The final line of the litany goes like this... All the saints of God, pray for us!

Peace Deacon John

RINCON DEL DIACONO

*Este fin de semana celebramos el Día de Todos los Santos. La próxima semana reflexionaremos sobre el Día de los Difuntos.En el Evangelio, Jesús describe a aquellos que son bendecidos por Dios. Durante el año litúrgico de la Iglesia, celebramos a muchos de estos bienaventurados: santos como San José, la Virgen María, los apóstoles y mártires, y muchos otros santos canonizados por la Iglesia. Santos con sus propias fiestas.Pero este fin de semana, en el Día de Todos los Santos, honramos y celebramos a todos los santos, conocidos y desconocidos, que ahora comparten la gloria de Dios para siempre en el cielo. Estos santos desconocidos no tienen una fiesta oficial propia. Este es su día. San Juan, en la primera lectura, describe a los santos como una multitud tan grande que nadie podía contarla. Eran personas de todas las naciones y razas, de todos los pueblos y lenguas... de pie ante el trono del Cordero de Dios, alabando y adorando a Dios junto con los ángeles. ¡Imaginen disfrutar del hermoso canto de esos coros de ángeles! ¡Debe ser maravilloso escucharlo! Los santos no son solo papas, obispos, sacerdotes, diáconos y religiosos, sino también laicos de toda condición. Algunos son miembros de nuestras familias que nos precedieron, marcados con el signo de la fe, y que esperan y rezan para que nos unamos a ellos.Aquellos que, como nosotros, esperan su resurrección en el último día, cuando brillarán como las estrellas en el firmamento por toda la eternidad. Los honramos, admiramos y agradecemos su fidelidad a Dios. Como miembros del cuerpo místico de Cristo, son nuestros hermanos y hermanas espirituales en Cristo. Hoy pedimos su intercesión mientras continuamos nuestro camino de fe. Para concluir, hay una oración que usamos en la iglesia: la Letanía de los Santos. Sería una buena oración para rezar hoy. La última frase de la letanía dice así: ¡Todos los santos de Dios, rueguen por nosotros!

Paz. Diácono John
