DEACON'S CORNER

CCC 1030-31: All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are assured of their eternal salvation; but after death undergo purification to achieve the holiness necessary to enter heaven. The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification for those who are on their way to heaven: a purification that is entirely different from the punishment of hell CCC 1031.

Last Monday we celebrated the feast of All Souls. We pray for those elect who are still undergoing their final purification before entering heaven. Prayers for the dead are found several places in scripture, e.g. 2 Macc. 12:46. From the beginning the Church honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers for them especially the Eucharistic sacrifice CCC 1032. But why is this purification necessary? Because nothing unclean can enter heaven Lk 12:59 and Rev: 21:27. Purification is therefore necessary for those who die with unforgiven venial sins and/or unremitted temporal punishment due to sins already forgiven (this is one reason a priest gives us a penance in confession). Ways to eliminate temporal punishment for both the deceased and for ourselves include, various acts of prayer, indulgences, works of penance etc.

Here is a simple example of some punishment remaining after the forgiveness of a sin. A young boy likes to play soccer. His mother tells him to not kick the soccer ball in the front yard as it could break a window at the front of the house. He goes and does exactly what his mother tells him not to do. He kicks the ball and it breaks the window. Obviously his mother is angry and upset. The son expresses his sorrow to his mother and she forgives him. But there is still a debt to be paid. She tells him that he has to make up for what he did. He has to use his allowance pay for a new window.

Let us pray: Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Peace Deacon John

RINCON DEL DIACONO

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (CIC) 1030-31: Todos los que mueren en la gracia y la amistad de Dios, pero aún imperfectamente purificados, tienen asegurada su salvación eterna; pero después de la muerte, se someten a una purificación para alcanzar la santidad necesaria para entrar en el cielo. La Iglesia denomina Purgatorio a esta purificación final para quienes se dirigen al cielo: una purificación completamente distinta del castigo del infierno (CIC 1031).

El lunes pasado celebramos la fiesta de los fieles Difuntos. Oramos por los elegidos que aún se encuentran en su purificación final antes de entrar en el cielo. En las Escrituras se encuentran oraciones por los difuntos en varios pasajes, por ejemplo, en 2 Macabeos 12:46. Desde sus inicios, la Iglesia honró la memoria de los difuntos y ofreció oraciones por ellos, especialmente el sacrificio eucarístico (CIC 1032). Pero, ¿por qué es necesaria esta purificación? Porque nada impuro puede entrar en el cielo (Lucas 12:59 y Apocalipsis 21:27). La purificación es necesaria, por lo tanto, para quienes mueren con pecados veniales no perdonados o con penas temporales no remitidas por pecados ya perdonados (esta es una de las razones por las que un sacerdote nos impone una penitencia en la confesión). Entre las maneras de eliminar la pena temporal, tanto para el difunto como para nosotros mismos, se incluyen diversos actos de oración, indulgencias, obras de penitencia, etc.

He aquí un ejemplo sencillo de una pena que permanece después del perdón de un pecado. Un niño disfruta jugando al fútbol. Su madre le dice que no patee el balón en el jardín, ya que podría romper una ventana. Él va y hace exactamente lo que su madre le dice que no haga: patea el balón y rompe la ventana. Obviamente, su madre se enoja y se disgusta. El hijo le expresa su arrepentimiento y ella lo perdona. Pero aún hay una deuda pendiente. Ella le dice que debe compensar lo que hizo: debe usar su paga para comprar una ventana nueva.

Oremos: Dales, Señor, el descanso eterno, y que brille para ellos la luz perpetua. Que sus almas y las almas de todos los fieles difuntos, por la misericordia de Dios, descansen en paz.

Paz, Diácono John
